

Services

The City of Wakefield is fortunate to offer residents several types of services. Whether you need a doctor, a lawyer, or a haircut, Wakefield has what you're looking for.

Emergency Services

Financial Institutions

Fitness

Funeral Home

Geriatric Services

Greenhouse

Hair Care

Health Care

Internet/Cable/Telephone

Laundry

Legal Assistance

Library

Museums

Newspaper

Parks & Recreation

Restaurants

Schools

Theater

Utilities

Wakefield Senior Center

Wakefield Senior Center is a non-profit organization that provides entertainment, meals, social and educational activities, meals on wheels, and health care clinics.

407 E. 7th Street - 402-287-2149

Email: waksrctr [at] abbnebraska.com

Humpty Dumpty Daycare

Humpty Dumpty Daycare located at 405 Johnson Street provides quality daycare based on the individual needs of children in a class and the collective needs of the class as a whole. As a result, we will have children with a stronger sense of self and a stronger sense of community.

...

Read More

Gardner Public Library

Built in 2004, it is a 7,000-square foot facility and features a meeting room that seats up to 50 people, computer work stations (with wireless connections), and separate children and adult reading areas. The Gardner Public Library contains over 30,000 books, 1300 audio books, and 1400 videos. Library activities include children's holiday reading programs, a summer reading program, story time for preschool students, as well as computer classes and an adult book club.

114 West 3rd Street - 402-287-2334 - Gardner Public Library website

Wakefield Republican

The Wakefield Republican, the local newspaper has 1,125 subscribers. The weekly paper is distributed on Thursdays. E-editions are also available to subscribers for only $20/year. Daily papers are also delivered locally including the Norfolk Daily News, Omaha World -Herald, and Sioux City Journal.

224 Main Street - 402-287-2323

Email: [wakenews \[at\] abbnebraska.com](mailto:wakenews@abbnebraska.com)
